

Soar into April with Sublime Sights and ski jumping events

The rush of cold mountain air, the crunch of the snow, the thrill of feeling weightless as you soar into the sky...experience the thrill of the sport of Nordic ski jumping at our newest exhibition, Sublime Sights: Ski Jumping and Nordic America.

Opening April 17 and produced in partnership with the Washington State Ski & Snowboard Museum, Sublime Sights shares the history of this soaring sport in the Pacific Northwest. Memorabilia, equipment, oral histories, photos and more will help illustrate the danger and the daring of these top athletes. Make sure you join us for the exhibition, and check out the great thematic programs below.

Virtual Lecture: Ski Jumping in Washington State—A Nordic Tradition | April 24

Author and historian John Lundin joins us online to recreate the excitement of ski jumping's heyday in Washington State. This talk (and our Museum Store) feature his book on the subject. TICKETS

Virtual Panel: Ski Jumping Memories: Stories from the Nordic American Voices Oral History Program | April 29

Join us online as we share clips from interviews with famous ski jumpers! These interviews are drawn from our Nordic American Voices program, and even include stories of Seattle's famous "coliseum jump." RSVP
